RESPECT. What does it mean to you?

Every day you have the opportunity to make the world — and U-M — a better place through your attitudes and actions. Together, we can create a culture where every person is treated with dignity, a campus where all community members can thrive.

Learn more about creating and maintaining a respectful environment on campus, visit expectrespect.umich.edu